“ I’ve been a quarterback, a head coach. Now I’m a receiver.”

Heart Recipient

I’ve been a head coach and a quarterback in the NFL. And now, I’m thankful to say I’m also a heart recipient. My doctors had given me less than a week to live. On the last day I was supposed to be on this planet, I received a heart transplant from an organ donor. But so many people are still waiting — like I was — for the gift of life. You can be a game changer. Join more than 138 million registered organ, eye, and tissue donors. Sign up online. Go to organdonor.gov.
